Learned counsel for the petitioner on instructions states that the proceedings are already pending before the Thiruvananthapuram Court and the petitioner is also desirous for divorce. The respondent has however filed a divorce petition at Bangaluru Family Court and it is difficult for the petitioner to attend the proceedings in Bangaluru, more so as she has a six years old child.

On a Court query as to why the parties cannot go in for mutual consent divorce if both are agreeable to a divorce, learned counsel submits that for some reasons, the husband has not been willing so far.
