O R D E R

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioners, we are not inclined to interfere with the impugned order. However, we grant liberty to the petitioners to submit a representation to the 1st respondent, namely, Secretary, Agriculture and Co-operative Department, Govt. of Gujarat, who may take up the matter and if some assistance can be rendered in law, the same shall be done so that the farmers who are suffering should not think that they have to suffer in continuum.

If a representation is made within four weeks hence, we are sure the 1st respondent shall take appropriate steps as required under law.

With the aforesaid direction, the Special Leave Petition stands disposed of.
