O R D E R

We have heard learned counsel appearing for the parties.

The allegations made in the instant case are with regard to cheating and forgery. Having perused the complaint as well as the bail rejection order(s), we are of the view that as the charge sheet now has filed, this is a case where bail should not have been rejected.

We, therefore, enlarge the petitioner on bail, subject to the following conditions:

- 1) The petitioner shall furnish bail bonds in the sum of Rs. 25,000/- (Twenty Five Thousands only) with two sureties of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court.
- 2) The petitioner shall get his presence marked before the concerned officer-in-charge/S.H.O. of the Police Station once in a month;
- 3) The petitioner would produce his latest and full residential address in the concerned Trial Court/Police Station while obtaining bail and he shall not change his address without the prior permission of the Court.
- 4) If the petitioner is holding a passport, he shall deposit the same in the concerned trial Court and if not, he should produce affidavit in that regard.
- 5) The petitioner is directed to cooperate with the investigation of the case.

In the event of necessity of any further condition(s), depending on the attendant facts and circumstances, it would be open for the concerned trial Court to prescribe the same.

In case of any breach of the conditions, this Court, on being informed thereof, would, if inclined, initiate suo motu steps for cancellation of the bail, which is hereby granted.

The Special Leave Petition is disposed of in the afore-stated terms.

Pending applications, if any, also stand disposed of.
