O R D E R

It took more than one year for the petitioner to serve the caveator.

Shri Mahesh Thakur, learned counsel for the respondent states that the caveator stands served, though belatedly. He points out that the present petition allegedly is an abuse of process of law and stands filed against an interim order.

Without entering into the said controversy, it would be only in the interest of justice that the registry processes the matter for listing before the appropriate court, for further hearing, in accordance with law.
