We have heard learned counsel for the parties.

This appeal has been filed against the order of the High Court rejecting the bail application of the appellant in a case under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471, 482 and 120-B read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code. In view of the allegations made against the appellant and that the appellant was not named in the FIR and claims to be an employee of the main accused, the appellant had made out a case of bail.
