O R D E R

The Court is convened through Video conferencing.

Application seeking permission to file the Special Leave Petition is granted.

Having heard learned Advocate-on-Record appearing for the petitioner – complainant and carefully perusing the material available on record, we do not find any ground to cancel the bail granted to Respondent No.2 by the High Court. It goes without saying that if Respondent No.2 misuses the concession of bail, the petitioner shall be at liberty to seek cancellation thereof by approaching the High Court.

As regards the petitioner's prayer for expeditious disposal of the trial, we have no reason to doubt that the learned Trial Court shall make an endeavour to conclude the same at the earliest.

The Special Leave Petition is disposed of in the aforestated terms.

Consequent upon disposal of the Special Leave Petition, pending applications filed in the matter also stand disposed of.
