O R D E R

It is pointed out that the petitioner has filed a writ petition against the same parties before the High Court on which notice has been issued and orders have been passed for listing, but the same has not been listed as yet despite the petitioner having filed two applications in that regard.

In the circumstances, we dispose of this writ petition with the observation that the petitioner may approach the High Court for expeditious disposal of the writ petition, pending before the High Court. We hope and trust that the High Court shall make every endeavour to decide the case as expeditiously as possible.
