UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

The present writ petition was filed by the petitioner in-person.

This Court on 21st August, 2017, had passed the following order:

"Having heard the petitioner, who has appeared in person, we are of the view, that the petitioner is not in a position to express and canvass the legal position, emerging out of the pleadings of the case.

We accordingly consider it just and appropriate to appoint Ms. Preetika Dwivedi, Advocate as Amicus Curiae to assist the Court in the matter. The Registry is directed to furnish a complete set of writ petition to the learned Amicus Curiae, within one week from today."

The Amicus Curiae was appointed in the matter as the pleadings and the arguments were not discernible.

We have heard Ms. Preetika Dwivedi, learned Amicus Curiae and Mr. Bharat Sangal, learned counsel appearing for the High Court of Jammu & Kashmir.

On a perusal of the assertions made in the writ petition, we find that more than 20 cases have been filed by the petitioner. We do not intend to comment on the said cases. However, we request the High Court to dispose of the cases filed by the petitioner, as expeditiously as possible. Learned counsel appearing for the High Court shall apprise the Registrar (Judicial) of the High Court of Jammu & Kashmir, of the order passed today, who in turn, shall place a note before Hon'ble the Chief Justice of the High Court. The cost imposed vide order dated 15th July, 2013, in 561-A Cr.P.C. No:174/2012 & IA (Cr.) No.:191/2013 by the High Court of Jammu and Kashmir, is made easy.

Barring the aforesaid, we are not inclined to entertain any other prayer.

The writ petition is, accordingly, disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.
