These matters arise out of the relief granted by this Court to the associations of caterers, dry fruits, fruit juice stalls owners etc., on the railway platforms, vide judgment dated 29.1.2016 in the case of Senior Divisional Commercial Manager, South Central Railways and Others Vs. S.C.R. Caterers, Dry Fruits, Fruit Juice Stalls Welfare and Another - (2016) 3 SCC 582.

Paragraph (34) of the aforesaid judgment which has given rise to some confusion is read thus :

"34. For the reasons stated supra, this Court cannot interfere with the impugned judgment and order of the High Court. The civil appeals are dismissed. The order dated 11.4.2014 granting stay of the impugned order shall stand vacated. We, however, make it clear that only those licensees may be eligible for renewal of their licences who can declare on affidavit that they do not have the licence of more than one shop or kiosk in their name or benami licence at the railway stations with periodical reasonable increase of licence fee. All pending applications are disposed of."

In effect, this Court directed that licensees who hold more than one licence shall be eligible for renewal of only one licence.

Now, as a matter of fact, licensees who have been doing business on the railway platforms are not merely individual persons but are co-operative societies, partnership firms and HUF. Each of these associations of persons held or hold more than one licence. The authorities interpreted our observation to mean that all these associations of persons mentioned above would also be entitled to only one licence. That was plainly not our intention. As can be seen from the entire judgment in Senior Divisional Commercial Manager, South Central Railways and Others (supra), the idea was to increase employment amongst those who have opted for this business. It is in this context that this Court declined to continue several licences in the name of one person. Obviously if licences over and above are distributed to other applicants who want to do the same business, more people would be employed.

This Court did not consider the case of associations of persons like the co-operative societies, partnership firms and HUF which held more than one licence. If the judgment in Senior Divisional Commercial Manager, South Central Railways and Others (supra) is implemented without regard to the purpose, it would result in reducing employment by restricting the number of licences to these associations of persons to one. In other words, co-operative societies etc., which hold more than one licence would be entitled to only renew one licence and would have to give up the others.

In these circumstances, we are constrained to direct that the number of existing licences in addition to one, held by the co-operative societies, partnership firms and

HUF, shall be allowed to be renewed as before in accordance with the existing policy.

The case for the co-operative societies appears to us to be obvious. As regards the partnership firms are concerned, it is well settled that a partnership is a compendious name for all the partners and in essence, a partnership firm really consists of the number of individuals who are its partners. Reference has been made to the following cases in this regard :

N. Khadervali Saheb (Dead) by LRs. & Anr. vs. N. Gudu Sahib (Dead) & Anr. - (2003) 3 SCC 229 and Commissioner of income Tax, West Bengal vs. A.W. Figgies & Co. and Others - SCR 1954 SC 171.

There is no reason why a partnership of several partners can have only one licence.

Similarly in the case of HUF, it is quite possible and it is quite often the case that the HUF may consist of several body of individuals who could all be doing business under the several licences held by such HUF. It would amount to imposing an undue liability on members of the HUF if they were prevented from having licences in their own names merely because they were members of the HUF.

We accordingly direct that the aforesaid associations of persons viz., the co-operative societies, partnership firms and HUF, in respect of the units covered by the judgment in Senior Divisional Commercial

Manager, South Central Railways and Others (supra), shall be entitled to renewal of all the licences they hold as on the date of the expiry of those licences.

With the aforesaid directions, these writ petitions are disposed of.

WP(C) Nos.557/2017, 799/2017 and 1100/2018 and CONMT.PET. (C) No. 696/2018 in W.P.(C) No. 557/2017

Learned Senior Counsel appearing for the petitioners prays for withdrawal of these petitions with liberty to take appropriate proceedings before the High Court in accordance with law.

Prayer is allowed.

Accordingly, the writ petitions are dismissed as withdrawn with the liberty aforesaid.

However, interim orders, if any, granting status quo qua the petitioners' licence by this Court, shall continue for a further period of two weeks from today.

In view of the above, no orders need be passed in the instant contempt petition and it is disposed of as such.

W.P.(C) No.292/2018, 299/2018, and 286/2018

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners prays for withdrawal of these petitions.

Prayer is allowed.

Accordingly, the writ petitions are dismissed as withdrawn.

T.P.(C) No. 54/2018, 375/2018 and 1197-1201/2018

In view of the aforesaid order passed by this Court in WP(C) Nos.557/2017 and connected matters, learned counsel appearing for the petitioners prays for withdrawal of these petitions.

Prayer is allowed.

Accordingly, the transfer petitions are dismissed as withdrawn.
