We have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the impugned judgment as also relevant materials on record.

The High Court has in its discretion has granted bail to respondent no. 1. We find no grounds to interfere with the impugned order. The special leave petition is, accordingly, dismissed.

It hardly need be mentioned that if there is any violation of any condition(s) of bail, necessary application may be made for cancellation of bail of respondent no.1.

Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
