O R D E R

This petition is filed under Article 32 of the Constitution of India which we decline to entertain at this stage. However, it is open for the petitioners to approach the High Court.

It is brought to the notice of this Court by Shri C.U. Singh, learned senior counsel appearing for the petitioners that the petitioners have already approached the High Court but the High Court is not taking up the matters. We request the High Court to take up the matters filed by the petitioners at an early date. It is also open for the petitioners to make a request to the High Court to decide the matters at an early date.

With these observations, the writ petition stands disposed of.

Pending applications, if any, are disposed of accordingly.
