UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Learned counsel for the appellant-State submits that the final figure which emerges is that there are 333 persons identified. Benefits has thus been extended to another set of respondents as was denied earlier.

In view of the aforesaid, learned counsel for the appellant states that the scheme can be worked out for the aforesaid number of persons.

We are inclined to dispose of the matters in terms as aforesaid.

If any eligible person still, who is before the Court is left out, they may also approach the appellant-State and if it falls within the parameters we are sure the appellant-State will work out for those number of people also which are said to be in maximum two digit figures.

The scheme which has now been accepted in terms of the present order will naturally be in super-session of the impugned orders.

Liberty is granted to move in case of difficulty.
