O R D E R

Heard.

We do not find any ground to interfere with the impugned order.

However, the petitioner may not be arrested for a period of two weeks from today. In the meanwhile, if the petitioner moves an application for bail before the trial court, with at least one day advance notice to the public prosecutor, the trial court may consider and decide the application for bail, having regard to the contentions which may be raised in accordance with law as far as possible on same day.

The special leave petition is disposed of accordingly.

Since the above order is being passed ex-parte, the respondent shall be at liberty to move this Court, if aggrieved.

Pending applications, if any, shall also stand disposed of.
