The present Special Leave Petition has been preferred by the petitioners against an interim order passed by the High Court in a pending First Appeal No.376/2008. On enquiry from the Registry, it has been found that the main First Appeal No.376/2008 itself has been dismissed for default by the High Court vide order dated 30.03.2022.

In that view of the matter, when the main First Appeal itself is dismissed for default, no further order is required to be passed in the present Special Leave Petition, which is arising out of an interlocutory/interim order passed by the High Court in First Appeal. Hence, the Special Leave Petition stands dismissed.
