UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

The High Court had entertained the writ petition only on the ground that the West Bengal Administrative Tribunal was not functioning in the State of West Bengal.

We are told that since then, the Tribunal has started functioning and this is not disputed by any of learned counsel for the parties.

Under the circumstances, we request the Tribunal to take up the matter and if necessary, vary the interim order passed by the High Court and in the circumstances of the case.

Of course, if orders are required to be varied, it should be based on an application filed by the concerned parties and after hearing all learned counsel.

With the above observations, the special leave petition stands disposed of.
