For Respondent(s)

UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

The special leave petition having been filed against an interim order passed by the High Court, we are not inclined to entertain the special leave petition.

The special leave petition is accordingly dismissed.

Mr. A.N.S. Nadkarni, learned ASG submits that the amount of Rs.10 lacs, as per the judgment of the High Court, has already been deposited before senior master of the Court. He submits that the petitioners pray that the amount of interest, which shall accrue on the said deposit, shall be paid to the respondents herein (the original petitioners in the writ petition) without prejudice to their rights in the pending writ petition. We give liberty to the petitioners to make an appropriate application before the High Court which may be considered and order be passed. We make it clear that it is for the High Court to consider the matter and take an appropriate decision in accordance with law. We, however, observe that the writ petition be decided without being influenced by any of the observations made in the impugned judgment.

Mr. Nadkarni submits that the contempt proceedings had already been initiated. We, observe that till the application of the petitioners with regard to which liberty has been granted, is finally decided, the contempt proceedings be not proceeded any further.
