Delay condoned.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that after the judgment of the High Court dated 15.05.2019 an application for recall has been filed in which notice has been issued and the application is pending.

In view of the above, we are of the view that special leave petition be not entertained at this stage, which is dismissed.

We, however, observe that till the recall application is disposed of, the status quo, as existing today, shall be maintained by the parties. The liberty is granted to come back again.

Pending application(s), if any, stands disposed of.
