UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

We are not inclined to interfere with the judgment and order passed by the High Court refusing to grant anticipatory bail.

However, we give limited protection to the petitioner to surrender before the Trial Court within three weeks and apply for regular bail. If bail application is filed, after giving 48 hours advance notice to the concerned Public Prosecutor, the Trial Court may decide the bail application preferably on the same date.

We also make it clear that the Trial Court may consider all contentions on its own merits in accordance with law and uninfluenced by the observations in the impugned judgment.

The special leave petition is disposed of accordingly.

Pending applications, if any, shall stand disposed of.
