O R D E R

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and also perused the record.

We do not find any ground to interfere with the conviction of the petitioners. However, having regard to the facts and circumstances of the present case, sentence awarded to the petitioners is reduced to the period already undergone.

The special leave petition is disposed of accordingly.

If the respondent is aggrieved, it will be at liberty to move this Court.

Pending applications, if any, shall also stand disposed of.
