O R D E R

The Court is convened through Video Conferencing.

The main grievance of the petitioners in the special leave petition is arising in an application filed under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 which is pending before the High Court since 2019 onwards.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioners, we feel that in all fairness, the matter should be disposed of by the High Court. Hence, we request the High Court to dispose of the said application on its own merit and in accordance with law expeditiously without adjourning the matter any further.

With the aforesaid observation, we dispose of the special leave petition.

As a sequel to the above, pending interlocutory application also stands disposed of.
