UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

1. At the commencement of the hearing, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that since the petitioner has already been acquitted by the trial court, the instant petitions have become infructuous.

2. In view of the statement made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, these special leave petitions stand disposed of as having become infructuous.

3. As a sequel to the above, pending interlocutory applications also stand disposed of.
