The Court is convened through Video Conferencing.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and carefully perused the material placed on record.

So far as petitioner No.1 is concerned, it is stated by the learned counsel for the petitioners that the said petitioner has been arrested after filing of the special leave petition.

In view of the statement made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the special leave petition has become infructuous qua petitioner No.1, and the same stands disposed of as such.

So far as petitioner No.2 is concerned, we see no reason to grant anticipatory bail to the said petitioner.

As a sequel to the above, pending interlocutory application also stands disposed of.

In case petitioner No.2 surrenders before the trial court and files an application for regular bail, the same shall be considered and disposed of in accordance with law expeditiously.
