O R D E R

1. Having heard the appellant-in-person as also the learned counsel for the respondent(s), though we appreciate the steps taken by the appellant herein, in an effort to reform the system, at this stage, we see no reason to entertain the instant appeals for examination any further since, it is not in dispute that the respondent-airline (Go Airlines), against which the appellant herein has filed the complaint, is presently going through the the proceedings under Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 (for short 'IBC') in the National Company Law Tribunal (for short 'NCLT') and the moratorium under Section 14 of the IBC is in operation.

2. Therefore, taking note of this aspect of the matter, the appeals stand disposed of along with the pending application(s), if any.
