O R D E R

Delay Condoned.

In paragraph 13 of the impugned judgment, the High Court, despite giving an opportunity to continue the inquiry from the stage where it was faulted, has issued a direction regarding the salary for the period the respondent remained out of service. Since, the High Court has permitted the Government to pass appropriate orders on salary, being a well settled position, the period can only be deemed as suspension period and only after the conclusion of the departmental proceedings, any final order as to the regularization of the period can be passed.

Subject to the above clarification, this special leave petition is disposed of.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
