O R D E R

Learned senior counsel appearing for the petitioner points out that there is no consideration by the High Court in respect of the grounds taken in Writ Petition No.3140/2003. If that be so, it is for the petitioner to go back to the High Court and file a review.

Therefore, this special leave petition is dismissed as withdrawn, making it clear that in case any review is filed on the ground noted above, within thirty days, the same may not be dismissed on the ground of delay.

However, we make it clear that we have not expressed any opinion on the merits of the case.
