UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

We have heard learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners and perused the impugned judgment as also the relevant materials on record.

Since the suit is ready for final argument, we are not inclined to interfere with the impugned order. The special leave petition is, accordingly, disposed of by giving liberty to the petitioners to raise all contentions in the appropriate proceedings, if the need arises therein.

The disposal of this special leave petition and the revision before the High Court shall not be an impediment for the Trial Court to consider the contentions of the petitioners on its own merits and in accordance with law.

Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
