O R D E R

There is delay of 453 days in preferring these Review Petitions. In the facts and circumstances of the case, we condone the delay.

The acquittal of the Review Petitioner by the High Court was found to be unsustainable and as such the order of conviction and sentence passed by the Trial Court was restored by this Court.

We have gone through the grounds taken in the Review Petitions and do not find any reason for interference in review jurisdiction. These Review Petitions are, therefore, dismissed.
