O R D E R

In view of the order passed in proceedings, the land in question has been acquired and the Award has already been passed, however, it is complained by the land holders that the compensation as allowed is meagre, therefore, liberty may be granted to take recourse seeking enhancement.

In view of above, we dispose of this misc. application with an observation that the land holders are at liberty to assail the adequacy of the compensation, taking recourse of law as permissible.
