UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Mr. Sidharth Sarthi, learned counsel instructed to appear for the petitioners submits that the Advocate-on-Record in this matter has not been able to attend the Court for being down with cold. It is submitted that the petitioners had been intending to engage some other counsel as per the contact made in September of this year but there had been no other contact with the petitioners.

Perusal of the record makes out that in this matter, the interim relief was granted on 19.08.2020 by this Court. However, it is noticed that the High Court at the initial stage granted interim relief to the petitioners on 10.09.2019 with directions to join the investigation and thereafter, rejected the pre-arrest bail plea of the petitioners by the impugned order dated 03.02.2020 essentially for the reason that the petitioners were found to be wanting in punctual compliance of the requirements of the order passed by the Court and in fact, was flouting the orders of the Court.

Taking the totality of the circumstances into account and the nature of accusations concerning offences under Sections 420 and 120-B of the Indian Penal Code and the demand of the orders of the Court, we are neither inclined to grant any concession to the petitioners nor find any reason to keep this petition pending.

This petition stands dismissed.

All pending applications stand disposed of.
