Application for exemption from filing official translation is allowed.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the matter relates to an incident which is six years old and the petitioner is not a government servant. It is his further submission that in view of the provisions of the Prevention of Corruption Act having been invoked, the jurisdiction would lie with the Court dealing with the subject matter and the powers under Section 102 of the Cr.P.C. cannot be invoked for freezing the accounts.

Notice returnable in four weeks.
