UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

The petitioner was undisputedly appointed as a Librarian, which is an isolated post having no promotion avenues under the pre or post amendment to the rules of recruitment which govern the service conditions of the petitioner.

The High Court after taking into consideration the material on record, observed that in absence of avenues of promotion one is entitled for special grade pay which is an alternative mechanism to overcome stagnation of such employees whose promotion avenues are blocked.

After we have heard learned Counsel for the parties and taking note of the factual statement on record which is otherwise not in dispute, we find no reason to interfere in our jurisdiction under Article 136 of the Constitution.

Consequently, the Special Leave Petition is dismissed.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
