O R D E R

1. Mrs. Rekha Pandey, learned counsel appearing for the respondent(s) seeks time to secure the SLP paper books from the appellant and also for a copy of the original records. Learned counsel for the appellant and the respondents request the Court for the soft copy of the Original Records. The Registry is directed to supply soft copies of the appeal records to the learned counsel for the appellant and the respondents.

2. In criminal appeals listed before us, learned counsel for the appellant and the respondents have been requesting for soft copies of the original records. In order to obviate the procedural difficulty and to enable easy access to original criminal record, we direct the Registry to evolve a simple protocol by which such requests are processed and soft copies of original criminal record are transmitted through e-mail or enable the advocates to copy the said record on pen drive.

3. List these appeals after two weeks.
