O R D E R

It appears that the matter having been settled, the full amount was received by one of the appellants in trust which had to be distributed to all the appellants/their legal representatives, the original appellants being brothers. That is the dispute really arising from the money not being handed over to all the concerned parties by the concerned appellant who received the money and that is not a issue which can be determined in the present proceedings.

It is open for the claimants-appellants to take out appropriate proceedings in accordance with law to ensure that their share of the money received is handed over to them.

Miscellaneous application accordingly stands disposed of.
Pending applications also stand disposed of.
