O R D E R

After having failed in a Writ Petition, which was rightly rejected on 24.08.2016 on the ground that after the Tribunal rejects a challenge to its constitution only a challenge post-award would be adjudicable, a second application, this time under Section 14(2) of the Arbitration Act, was rejected. Against this, a Writ Petition was rejected reiterating what was stated in the rejection to the first petition and stating that this was a second bite at the same cherry, with which we entirely agree.

The Special Leave Petition is dismissed.
